

In reply address not the signer of this letter but Bureau of Aeronautics,
Navy Department, Washington, D.C.

Refer to No. Aer-A-ML
L5-1(2)
OO/Taylor, J.B.
EF

NAVY DEPARTMENT
BUREAU OF AERONAUTICS
WASHINGTON

APR 3-1937

From: The Chief of Bureau of Aeronautics.
To: Lieutenant (jg) James B. Taylor, Jr., U.S.N.R.,
420 Lexington Avenue, New York, N.Y.

SUBJECT: Letter of Appreciation for Report of Inspection of Factories and Aircraft in England and at the Paris
Aircraft Show.

1. The subject report of January 9, 1937, has been received and read with great interest by practically every officer attached to the Bureau of Aeronautics.

2. This report contains authentic information which is timely and valuable, and much of which the Bureau had not obtained from other sources.

3. The Chief of Bureau of Aeronautics desires to express his appreciation for the efforts you made in collecting the information contained in the subject report and for its preparation and submission to this Bureau.

4. A copy of this letter is being forwarded to the Bureau of Navigation with the request that it be made a part of your official record.

A. B. COOK
Rear Admiral U.S.N.
Chief of the Bureau of Aeronautics

Copy to:
Bunav.