Dear Jack:

I enjoyed your NBC interview yesterday morning.

You mentioned several times how lucky you were during your career. But I know you discovered early on that the harder you worked the luckier you became.

Good luck in your retirement. I know you'll work at it.

Sincerely,

James B. Taylor

Thanks! You were nice to write - what a hassle week for all of us including your industry which had to suffer more than anyone industry.

Dear Jack:

Thanks for your thoughtful reply to my September 12 note.

This morning I purchased a copy of your book "Jack" at Barnes and Noble.

Are you going to have another public signing at Borders? If so, I'd like to have you inscribe your book.

Sincerely,

James B. Taylor
