Dear Jim:

What a fantastic treasure you have presented The
HIGHLANDER and all of us.

You shall see the blueprints and your letter hanging for all to enjoy when you are next on board.

By George, indeed you've got it! Thank you, Jim,
again and again.

As ever,

Malcolm S. Forbes

Dear Jim:

Of course, anything that so joltingly reminds us of the wee balance by which we all hang is disconcerting!

In the case of my recent separation from my motorcycle, one happy result has been to truly enjoy such thoughtfulness as yours.

I have to share one note received--"Our son was also injured six years ago (hit by a car). He hardly got any calls or cards and was upset by that, so I try to make others feel someone cares."

From now on, thanks to you, this sinner-by-omission shall make a similar resolve. We all learn the hard way that such expressions of caring do lift the spirit!

Many thanks--and we are all looking forward to greeting you and Peg on November 34d.

As ever

Malcolm S. Forbes

Dear Jim:

We are fortunate to have so many wonderful and happy memories as well as your kind and warm condolences to help make the loss of our father easier to bear.

What Pop meant to the five of us, we tried to express at his memorial service. By sharing our remembrances with you, we hope that you will fully realize how much your generous words, your sympathy and your prayers are appreciated by us all.

Again, with heartfelt thanks,

Malcolm S. Forbes, Jr.
