

Frank Tallman

Movie stunt pilot, Frank Tallman, was famous for flying a twin Beech through a billboard for It's a Mad, Mad, Mad, Mad World in 1962.

Frank Tallman flying N63158 through a billboard on December 19, 1962, for the film It's a Mad Mad Mad Mad World.

In the 70s when Jim III was with Cessna in Wichita, Frank was in Hutchinson, KS filming "Ace Eli & Roger of the Skies". He tracked down Jim and asked him if he was related to test pilot, Jimmie Taylor, which he was. Frank told Jim that his father had taken him on his first acrobatic flight back in the 30s.

Frank Tallman filming "Ace Eli" in Hutchinson, Ks in the 70s